

DON'T MISS the WORKSHOP with

SOJOURN THEATRE

Sojourn members will be in residence at UWM for 2010-11 as part of

The Penelope Project

WORKSHOP OPEN TO ALL

You MUST attend the workshop in order to audition for the Penelope Project in the afternoon

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15TH, 10 – NOON
THEATRE 7 (in the basement of the Theatre Building)

Sojourn Theatre is an eight year-old, multi-ethnic, ensemble-based company with a commitment to both adventurous theatricality and community engagement. Sojourn creates unique, often site-specific investigations of stories and themes that consistently surprise, delight and provoke diverse audiences. Their performance ON THE TABLE was featured in American Theatre in 2010.

Learn more: www.sojourntheatre.org

National touring, a body of 18 major works, and a growing international reputation for cutting-edge, high-quality arts and civic dialogue innovation allow the company to explore a variety of projects which bring our team of designers, performers and logistical wizards together on the road and at home

Reserve your place

by emailing Lori Woodburn at woodburn@uwm.edu

Questions? contact Anne Basting basting@uwm.edu